Coming into our 8th annual Hydrotechnics Festival we are prepared to bring you a whole new show while staying true to our underground roots featuring old-school legends, unique musical acts and talented artists coming together to create a weekend experience where we are all family in our own little home! This year's festival will feature 3 stages of full scale concert production and lighting, interactive deco exhibits and performers and an immersive site lighting scheme in order to transport you to a whole new world for a weekend away from your worries among friends!

First and foremost, we'd like to introduce you to our new summer home, Indian Lookout Country Club in Pattersonville, New York! We will enjoy serene nature views and ample space to spread out at our new home for for weekend with plenty of centrally located camping.
