

Remix competition: Can you improve on RackNRuin's

Posted by BlackButter - 2011/01/26 11:33

Yes it's remix competition time, and this one has some natty little prizes including a release on Black Butter Records, the tune's original home. Says Matt RNR: "After countless requests from people we thought it was only right to launch a remix competition. Download the musical parts and top quality vocals from two jungle / dancehall legends Navigator and Slarta John (Basement Jaxx)!

"There will be big prizes for the winner and four runners up: the tracks will be officially released on Black Butter Records, and you'll also get free Black Butter releases for life and goodie bags for all the runners up, plus an extra special grand prize for the winner. Good luck! And remember all remix styles are welcome! Have fun!"

Click Below to grab parts for the track..which are at 130bpm

<http://soundcloud.com/black-butter-records>

Entries need to be in by Monday 28th February, email them to info@black-butter.co.uk or send them through on the BB soundcloud page.

Good luck!

=====