Posted by thegulfgateproject - 2021/05/20 02:17

This week at Toast & Jam HQ, we are bringing you a little garage/2 step flavor courtesy of F-Word and his new track End of Love. This jam features a stacked bass line and synth line with a processed vocal sample to get things rolling. F-Word then transitions into a second complementary synth to round out the melodic line of End of Love, while finishing off with a second stacked and processed vocal line. Chill vibes are the order of the day on this release...check it!
