Vocalist aqua with producers Siberian and LVPIS brought us the dubstep jam YDKM (short for You Don't Know Me) last year and called upon the remixing magic of Toast & Jam for a 2022 reimagining that would move the original in some new musical directions. First up is B-Phreak, fresh off his 2021 Sick Mode album release on Toast & Jam, who lends his signature bass house touch to YDKM. Mr. Big Mouth checks in second with his mid-tempo breakbeat version, complete with massive drums and gnarly bass lines. Rounding out the package is Dopamine with a tech house reworking worthy of nothing less than the deepest darkest warehouse rave. Something for everyone on this remix package!
