

GreenFlamez - Turn Away OUT NOW ON BANDCAMP!!!*

Posted by toastandjamrecordings - 2022/08/11 04:25

GreenFlamez has been keeping dancefloors packed and rocking as of late, and with his new track Turn Away that trend is set to continue. Big chunky drums and a rave synth loop set up the tune during the intro as a ragga vocal sample works in during the first breakdown. At the drop, a crunchy growling bassline picks up the tune from the rave synth, and both elements come together in harmony for the grand finale.
