

Leuce Rhythms - Hurtz OUT NOW ON BANDCAMP!!!

Posted by toastandjamrecordings - 2023/01/23 04:23

It's time to close out our 2022 release calendar over here at Toast & Jam HQ and what better way than to get loose with a new track from Leuce Rhythms. Hurtz is oozing with funk from the buzzing bass line to the pitched-down vocal loop, and even features a G-Funk organ to give it that extra sizzle. As always, Leuce Rhythms brings us ultra-clean production and techy percussion elements that round out the track with a polished shine. Get your next party hoppin' with Hurtz!
