

B-Phreak & Bradley Drop - Bounce Remixed OUT NOW!!

In order to pull off a proper remix release for an iconic track like Bounce we knew we needed to dig deep. Come to find out, Specimen A & Ctrl Z have teamed up to form the new production duo Multiply and we felt like this was exactly what Bounce needed. Needless to say, the Multiply remix is packing some deep breakbeat vibes with the chunkiest of drums, an electric guitar-like synth, and plenty of vocals from the original track. It's flat out epic. To switch gears a bit, we tapped Hankook to bring us some Spanish breaks vibes. The Hankook rework dishes out a relentless pounding sub bass with a dash of sparkle from his high end synth. You really can't go wrong with either of these massive remixes.
