DOWNBEAT 018

A: Factorfunk – Propultions

Clip: <http://downbeatproductions.com/factorfunk/propultions.mp3>

Starting off with a building cymbal as the drums kick in like Chuck Norris, the intro is very well designed to lay over any tune. Dropping out into the breakdown, you get some melody and then blamoo! The body opens up and it's a full on ride of grime-tastic mutant bass. Lots of energy and drum edits make this one hell of a stomping big tune.

AA: Factorfunk – Resistance

More on the heavy funk tip with a bit of bite added in, this track is a real nice choice for that middle ground sort of sound. Steady moving, bass switching, with nicely placed edits with a cool vocal hook. This one will have the crowd jumping around for sure.

With both tunes in their own style, this is a well rounded release that'll be good for many types DJ's out there.
