Perpetual Present - 'Trust'

Acidphonic are back to inject another prescribed dose of facilitated filth. Shooting up the A-Side is Perpetual Presents' original mix Trust, cracking down another signature soiree of Tech-Funkin' breakbeat floorlessness. Fat kicks, stabalicious bass hits and winding cosmo soundscapes make for a colossal mix. What can only be described as Cameo Robo-Crickets, affix an intricate percussive quirk to the tune: sounding to the beat throughout. The track whips up an obese bass drop at 02.57, reeking of peak-time pandemonium!

Perpetual Present - 'Trust' (The Noise Generator Remix)

The Noise Generators' B-Side remix provides the antidote with a gorgeous placebo of triptic tech-house tribalism. A Subtle burner, progressive at heart and with an addictively euphoric ambition. Canvassing razor- sharp synth revs and a transcendent vocal bed, this one crowns a divine techno groove that'll lock in beyond the pickets of perception - TRUST!
