After getting bored with deadlines and chasing pennies and chart positions I decided to take Kiss My Bass to free netlabel status. A smaller group of artists just making stuff and getting it out rather than deadlines and thanklessness ;) We'll still cover a range of bass driven genres and the debut is a bit of an electro breaks stomper from our friends The Random Scarves.

You can download the 320k mp3 from the Soundcloud set or head over to Bandcamp and choose your format. Our mailing list gets all this at least a week before straight to their inbox so if you wanna be included then email me on udy@kissmybass.co.uk and I'll add you.
