DOWNBEAT 049

THE FLASHBACK PROJECT FEAT. DENNEAN – 'NEW WAVE' / 'HEAR LIES'

London based rude boy, The Flashback Project, has been churning out his own unique style of in-your-face, cutting edge dance music for over 10 years now. His twisted sound bridges the gap between underground Hardcore, Rave, Tearout Breaks, Future Jungle and Dubstep.

For his second single on Downbeat, we see Flashback stepping into the realms of Future Jungle with vocalist, Dennean. The two tracks, 'New Wave' & 'Hear Lies' both rollout a full-on 140 junglistic workout, complete with super crisp slamming beats, tearing basslines, sweeping synths and emotive vocals.

This is the first release of 2012 by the hugely talented and forward thinking studio wizard, The Flashback Project... But rest assured, it will not be the last...
