Morning all!

As I'm sure most of you are aware, this 'summer' is quite a significant one for the people of this 'sunny' isle (I sigh as I look out the window at what can only be described as a typical British summer's day – biblical rainfall, people cowering under their umbrellas and so on).

Anyway, with the Queeny's celebrations last week, the English footy team toiling at the Euros and, of course, the impending 'lympic shenanigans here in London (redacted so the IOC don't sue me), the people of this country are in a celebratory mood (despite the weather). So this Tuesday I will be presenting a special Hubie Sounds focusing on the best of British bass music over the years. You can expect loads of classic tunes, old and new, from British artists including Orbital, New Order, Underworld, Plump DJs and many more!

Hubie Sounds celebrates British bass music – Tuesday 12th June @ 9pm BST – live and direct on NSB Radio!
