

The Lunar Shift Special, Tonight, 7pm

Posted by lunarshift - 2009/09/16 05:20

Tune into The Lunar Shift Sessions tonight, on Rapture FM - www.rapturefm.co.uk 7-9pm (GMT). This week we start a very special season of shows building up to the 4th birthday of Dirty Spirit, the Rapture FM breaks night held in Cambridge that has become the unofficial warm up party the city's biggest breaks night, Boomslang.

The 4th birthday party is being held at Nusha in Cambridge on Saturday 3rd October with probably it's best ever line up including Rapture FM residents Lunar Shift as well as a headline set from 2009 Breakspoll Award winning Rob Focuz.

In the run up to this huge night, I shall be looking back at the music that had graced the speakers of Dirty Spirit over the years, this week with the first hour of the show dedicated to breaks from 2005, the year Dirty Spirit began, moving on to look at 2006 in the second hour.

Next week, we will be digging through the crates from 2007 & 2008, in the lead up to a massive edition of The Lunar Shift Sessions the following week, (September 30th), where the headliner from the night itself, Rob Focuz will be gracing the decks of the Rapture FM studio for a very special one hour guest mix treating us to what he has install for the birthday party.

This is not to be missed kids, get involved!!!
