

TONIGHT on www.brap.fm The BeatRouteSessions!

Posted by POoK - 2010/02/17 04:31

The Breakspoll spamming has finally come to an end! YAY!

Now, back to business. The BeatRouteSessions will be making radio waves to rock your Wednesday from 8pm on the mighty Brap.fm with the standard hard hitting beats and filthy as you like bass lines.

I'm keeping up the international theme started a couple of weeks ago when we tried to see how many Hungarians we could get in the Chatroom.... we got 3! That was followed by a failed attempt to get the Japanese in last week.

This week its the turn of THE WELSH. If you are Welsh or any of your friends are Welsh we really want to see you in there!!

I have a strong feeling we will break the record held by the Hungarians ;)

To get into the chatroom simply follow THIS LINK and get your chat on.

BUT HOW DO I TUNE IN????????????? you scream.... well, it's easy...

Click HERE to download the Brap App for your 'puter. Lovely.

Be sure to arrive on time.
