Tune in and enjoy some crazy vibes along with the usual lively, get you in the mood for the weekend mix of bass driven music. On this weeks show I will be focusing on the world of Breaks and you can catch an exclusive guest mix from Breakspoll Breakthrough Producers, BSD. Promoting there recently released 'Malditos Bass-Star-Dos!' album on their own label Machine Muzik.

BSD (BASS-STAR-DOS) began as a project in 1998, formed by two French lovers of electronic music, alternative trends and indie movement. Without resources, and virtually no experience producing dance music, they had to wait almost 10 years to realize the concept in which they wanted to make BSD. Their goal when introduced in the production of dance music was clear: Give the public what the public wants, working always in search of a musical identity, a style that characterizes us, but transmitting range of sounds at the same time. Currently, with little more than a year showing the public their particular ideology, they have reaped success after success under iBreaks Records label, which bet on them at first, reaching up to the top of the global Breaks scene, finally confirming them as one of the most prolific producers of recent times. Proof of this is the "Breakthrough Producer 2010" award, which was bestowed to them in the last edition of Breakspoll Awards (2010).

Heres what they have posted on their Facebook page about there album. 'Our first album, is the work of several months in which we have tried to capture our open minds and our obsession with attractive sounds. To present this project, we have created 10 new tracks, which will be accompanied by another 8 tunes published under iBreaks Records label, forming a compilation full of variety with a predominance of Breaks genre. In this album you will find tracks clearly influenced by the purest Elektro-Breaks of the early decade ("EBM", "Elektro-Life"); casual and fresh sounds characteristic of Tech-Funk ("Joe Jacks", "Overestimate", "Hard 'n' Bass", etc.); Oldskool impressive percussions ("Total Cucumber"); as well as tracks inspired by Bassline and NuSkool Breaks predominant in the UK ("Everybody Scream", "You Must Find Strength"). In addition, we wanted to honor one of our sources of inspiration in this adventure in Breaks music, as in the case of "Party Groove", a production subtitled as "Breaks Phenomenon" honoring the NuSkool Breaks classic "TSUNAMI ONE & BT : Hip Hop Phenomenon 1999."
