Ding Dong!

Avon Calling returns this coming Tuesday 7th December from 8pm to 10pm on Brap.FM. We're very proud to feature an awesome guest mix from Hironimus Bosch, who's put together a genre crossing mix of Breaks, Techno, and Tech Funk in true Hironimus Bosch style. The mix features plenty of exclusives, and even a few specials put together especially for the show.

Hironimus Bosch has been making waves in 2010 with a string of releases on Aux, Bombtraxx, Erase, and V.I.M records to name a few. Heavily influenced by the vibrant and eclectic music scene in his hometown of Bristol, his music blends elements of Techno, Electro, Breaks, House, Dubstep and Trance.
