Afghan Headspin were born in 2006, two members, Wrisk & Mackie from Drum & Bass trio Resonant Evil (Moving Shadow, Renegade Hardware) decided to branch out and into the world of Breakbeat. Their debut single "The Calling" was picked up by Broke, starting a rollercoaster of a ride for artist and listener alike, Afghan Headspin have since gone on to release on labels like Mechanoise, Bombtraxx, Westway, Rocstar, Against The Grain, Downbeat, Silo, and set up their own massive imprints Valium & Standard Audio.

Taking their sound out on the road, Afghan Headspin have managed to firmly secure their name in Southern Spain as one of the leading artists in the tearout scene, known for twisting and tearing basslines and seering lead lines, no holds barred filth! Bookings are starting to come in thick and fast as word spreads, let these guys loose on a crowd and mayhem will be released.

2008 saw a slew of releases throughout the year, which culminated in a guest mix on Annie Nightingales Radio 1 show in early 2009, and a slot at the world famous Breakspoll Awards at Fabric, Glade Festival, Pacha & Glastonbury. With work on remixes / copllabs for Cut La Roc's Rocstar label, and a colloboration with Shut Up & Dance, expect the levels to go way past 11!
