Simon Shackleton, a.k.a. Elite Force has been a prime mover since 1990 when he cut his teeth playing huge student nights and self-promoted acid house nights in the South West of England. Since then he has become known as one of the top technicians on a circuit that has included massive shows all around the world as well as numerous festival slots including Glastonbury, Coachella, Burning Man, San Francisco's Love Parade, and Glade. Often credited for being a lynchpin in creating the tech-funk 'genre' (an amalgamation of breaks, house, techno and electro) he has won plaudits from DJs and musicians across the board, including the likes of James Zabiela, Sasha, Crystal Method, Laurent Garnier and Fatboy Slim to name but five. As a remixer, Elite Force has always been in huge demand, with legendary re-workings for the likes of Grandmaster Flash, Groove Armada, Crystal Method, Jungle Brothers, Stereo MCs, UNKLE & Infusion all contributing to his reputation as one of the most creative and effective remixers around.

Elite Force's music has also been the soundtrack to many a movie, with a huge list of impressive A-list credits to his name, including the likes of the Matrix, Charlie's Angels, Arlington Road, Mortal Kombat, The Crow, The Bone Collector, The Jackyll, and Spiderman 2. His music has also appeared on a wide array of TV shows, from CSI to Top Gear, from Football Focus to LA Doctors. He's also soundtracked a number of computer games, including no fewer than 5 FIFA games, several of the Wipeout series, The Matrix and Motorstorm 1 & 2. Fast forward to 2010 and Elite Force's music has once again been selected for various new games & compilations, recently Revamping none other than Lalo Schiffrin's Bullit Theme for Sony's keynote launch of their new Motorstorm project at E3, a relationship that looks set to continue with the provision of large chunks of music for the full game (released 2011).

Social networking plays a key role in Elite Force's unique and direct approach to connecting with fans as his 15,000 strong mailing list will testify. He also recently passed the 10,000 mark on his Facebook page as well as enjoying the 250,000th Soundcloud play, whilst his Myspace page has now seen close to 2 million views. Definitely check out his SoundCloud.com page where he has over 70 music samples to listen to and download!

Finally, this year Elite Force cleaned up at the 10th International Breakbeat Awards also known as Breakspoll, <http://www.breakspoll.com/>. He picked up the awards for Best Producer and his U&A

Recordings won Best Record Label. What a year and it's only 4 months into 2011. Tune in to the show to hear some seriously amazing music from one of the best dj's and producers on the planet...Elite Force!
