

Avon Calling 24/05/11 with Monk3ylogic Archive

Posted by DrFish - 2011/05/19 09:38

For the next installment of Avon Calling, we're very proud to present a special guest mix from Bristol's very own "Monk3ylogic."

<http://i126.photobucket.com/albums/p81/drfishmusic/mONK3YLOGIC.jpg>

Monk3ylogic is the combined project of Will Bolam (aka Subliminal System) and Mike Connell (aka Mike Method). They came together at the beginning of 2009 having both produced and DJ'd in other Underground Dance Genres. They eventually merged their styles to create the Monkeylogic sound of Rumbling Electro fuelled beats and basslines with a psychedelic edge. They've gained a number of releases on labels such as Broken Robot, Liquid, and Broken Records, as well as remixes for labels such as Aux, Logariddim, and Kick It.

Equally busy on the touring front, they've been playing DJ sets and energetic live Ableton performances across the UK and Europe since their debut performance at Waveform festival in 2009. The forthcoming summer looks to be just as hectic with confirmed festival sets at Glastonbury, Waveform, and Glade, as well as various club bookings.
