Peaceful has a deep running passion for music. After many years playing the saxophone and electric guitar, he directed his efforts towards dance music, specifically the genres of progressive and funky breaks. His sets are designed to blend the best of both genres of breaks and keep you guessing about what is coming next. Looking to expand his global imprint, Peaceful continues to promote his mixes and launch an effort to release dance worthy tracks.

Check out Peaceful's Soundcloud for a bunch of free tunes and mixes. If you like deep progressive breakbeat music, you'll like all the sounds that dj Peaceful has to offer.

Jeff Hunter, the host of the program, has been playing breakbeat music through out the Midwest USA for a decade. Having been on college radio in the late 90's, Jeff was fully involved in the radio broadcast experience and it's been calling to him ever since he left in Y2K. Jeff has now teamed up with the worlds premier breakbeat oriented internet radio station, www.NSBRadio.co.uk!
