Hey sho. Good to see you still hang around these parts and it's good to see nubreaks.com back up and kicking!

Glad you're feeling the mix. There's another one on the way very soon (more glitch hop and mid tempo electronics for this new one)

And here's an updated link to Wreckbass...

nice one and good call on the Math Head, DTL and Lukes Anger bits, I've been loving those guys, I've played the hell out of DTL - Come 2 Life and Lukes Anger - Yo Ass in the past year.
I'm glasd I copied my vinyl of Lukes Nager to my disk , 'cos I've worn that vinyl quite extensively.
Downloading the mix now, dope tracklisting.
