NV Concepts and MASS EDMC will be unleashing madness upon the Northeast this winter, taking the meaning of Northeaster in a completely new direction. The two companies continue to push the limits of the EDM experience and are proud to present to you their latest brainchild: The Winter White Tour.

Featuring an all-white themed production, The Winter White Tour (launching in February) will see it's first three stops headlined by none other than David Guetta: the #1 DJ in the world. Joining Guetta as openers and performing on subsequent stops will be some of the most prominent rising stars in the world of House and Electro. The tour's goal will be not only to provide an unforgettable concert experience, but to create a rare opportunity for the Northeast EDM community to see the talent of tomorrow at its very doorstep.

So, as fond of neon green, splatter paint and glitter as you may be, it's time join us and lose the color: get Winter White.
