ANTIPOP

(Transverse Records)

Antipop (Chris Guarino) is a DJ who hails from the East coast of Florida and to say that music has always been a part of his life would be an understatement. In addition to having played many of the clubs in Florida, Chris continues to hold down the Wednesday night time slot from 8-10 EST on Nubreaks (formerly BreaksFM) playing an assorted mix of breakbeat, dubstep and drum and bass. Lovers of electronic music will appreciate the bass heavy tracks Antipop brings to his sets and he has worked with some of the biggest names in the electronic scene including The Autobots, Control Zed aka Skism/Pyramid, The Breakfastaz, Factor E, Datapusher, Modulus and many more Florida favorites. When asked what he loves about playing this genre of music he says "It's the energy and intensity of breaks and bass. Whatever genre or sub-genre you want to call it from dubstep to drum and bass, it's all about the swing of the breakbeat."
