It's been a long time coming, but Platinum Mules are finally back with another cracking tune, and we're lucky enough to get our hands on it here at Re:Connect!

'Fresh Start' has a much more laid-back vibe than we're used to hearing from Platinum Mules. It's a bouncy, warm, almost funky number that's perfect for the early doors crew. It's a perfect summer record, and with the weather on the change in the right direction this one is sure make an appearance at festivals and barbecues across the land.

We've pulled in two awesome peak time remixes to give a bit of variation on the package. First up, keeping things Re:Connect, is a joint effort from the boss man High Eight, teaming up with Boomslang resident and Re:Connect newbie That Girl DJ, for a "house-meets-breaks" slammer, perfect for more peak time sets. It's a fusion of styles that work together perfectly, so expect more collaborations from these two!

Finally, we've drafted in the remix talents of Mesmer, all the way from Bucharest. His previous releases on Sound Of Habib, Bombtraxx and Sango Music always impressed us at Re:Connect, and we've been waiting for the perfect track for him to work his magic on. Mesmer's remix takes the best hooky parts of the original and takes them well into Truskool progressive breaks territory, touching on dubstep influences in places, but all the while directed firmly towards the dancefloor.
