

Problems?

Posted by DigitalMasterTaco - 2011/08/29 20:22

if you have some kinds of problem with someone or with the way that they play, say it to them and not make some kind of bullshit issue in the chat room. you got something to say? direct it to me, and dont be ghey about it. this aint cool. you fucking noobs got a problem? i get it. but trust me when i say, this shit may be forgiven, but definitely not forgotten.

PLZ don't take it personal anyone. i was pretty drunk the night i wrote this and i don't remember what i was so pissed off for.

but now i am obligated to keep this post up just to show all the kids out there the dangers of drinking and driving.

wait..

i was driving? nono, my bad.

i meant Drinking and Spinning.

yea.

And if you don't believe me, just stay locked to Nubreaks Radio so you can catch one of my shows. then you'll understand EXACTLY what happens when you drink and broadcast LIVE to thousand upon thousand of Breaks, Dubstep, and Drum n Bass fans around the world.

It's not pretty. Not all the time. Sometimes it can get downright ugly, my friends. But hey, you live and learn, right?

well, maybe YOU learn. But I don't.

I don't think I do.

Do I?

wait...

what was I talking about?

oh yea..... I remember now!

I was talking about how IMPORTANT it is to listen to Nubreaks.com Radio!!

Keep It Locked

btw, i don't remember who made that nubreaks pic, but it wasn't me.

:blush:

BIG UP whoever made that BADASS Nubreaks.com Logo
