

Synergy - Fort Campbell, Kentucky

Adam Boatwright, AKA Synergy, fell in love with electronic music before he even knew what EDM was. Enjoying the sounds of Afrika Bambaata, Cybotron and the like in the 80's and into Prodigy, DJ Phantasy, Baby D, The Ratpack and so on in the early to mid 90's. Purchasing a pair of Technics and a few records Synergy honed his craft in his bedroom for a few years. Learning to mix FL breaks with the flair of oldskool breaks, he took his craft to a number of parties in Georgia. Throwing and playing events from 2002-2007, Synergy moved to NY and then to KY where he currently lives now. With his love for anything breaks, you are sure to be treated to some aural pleasures when Synergy is behind the decks.

Tune in to his show Synergistic Vibez 6-7 EST every Saturday on Nubreaks.com
