Adam Huszár is a hungarian producer and dj. He was born in 1983 in Hatvan, Hungary and he is living in a town called Gyongyos. He had been attracted to music from his childhood. He first started to tune up in 1998 on his first computer. He likes music that can give some kind of individual feeling, the musical style doesn't really matter. He affectionately uses atmospheric elements and broken beats in his productions. In 1998 he started producing ambient and electro and later he turned to progressive breaks and house. He gets involved more and more on a very wide spectrum of music.

His hard work lead to success. His tracks are welcomed and supported by various artists and djs around the world. He has also been involved in several remix contests and the results show that he is not just a talented producer, but in some cases the best.

Adam produces music all the time and looks for contacts around the globe. His productions are signed by Morphosis Records, Feralcode Records, System Recordings and many more labels. His tracks played by many dj's all over the world like Hernan Cattaneo, Markus Schulz, Andy Moor, Ferry Corsten, The Crystal Method.

In 2007 he founded Morphosis Records to release his own and similar producers works. He hosted two popular monthly radioshowes Morphosis Sessions and Mindfields with Dynamic Illusion on different radio stations like Frisky, Proton and Dance Radio.

Adam collaborated with many other artists and started few new projects in 2007. A production duo under Reclused with Pinar Aybar. They created some emotional productions in the genere of triphop and electronica. He is also a member of a Hungarian duo called Spasmodic. They made together some serious electro breaks and house productions. You can also expect some new solo projects under new aliases in the near future.
