

Tweedle - Sumthin Different

Hi there,

This is the first mix that I managed to remember to record. It's nothing special, and it's kinda short too. But hey, maybe it'll fill in some empty space on a CD you make with only the BEST DJ's on Earth :P

I don't have a track listing right now, but if you INSIST you need to know a certain track, msg me and I'll get you the info ASAP.

I hope you enjoy listening to the mix as much as I probably did playing it in the middle of the night. And that my friends is the PERFECT reason to keep it locked to NuBreaks.com: Because I like to do renegade shows in the middle of the night when no one is around. ;) I'll try to record them from now on.

Oh there is one problem though, I can't record my mic when I mix. I can't figure it out yet. But I will soon enough, and then you can all hear my sexy voice :woohoo:

ENJOY
