My 25th of December show will be moved to the 1st of January, 2013.

I will spend all Christmas with my son and want to give him my full attention over the holidays.

Wish you great holidays and a great start to the new year!

don't be sorry silly, we don't expect our dj's to play on Christmas, it is NOT mandatory, GO YOU for spending time with your SON!!! I think that is wonderful for a father to spend time with their child, not many guys do that... YAY!! for you, keep on doing what your doing, I only have more RESPECT for you...

hope your Christmas was well spend with your son...
