

XSIVE THERAPY on hiatus

Posted by XSI - 2010/05/30 16:01

Hello good people! I will be unable to do the XSIVE THERAPY radio show for the next 5 months, as my living arrangements are now in transition while I'm having a new house built. Hopefully the good people at Nubreaks will have me back when I am settled in, as I have always loved playing my shows on this station and have the utmost respect for the administration and the listeners for always being supportive of my efforts :)

Don't worry tho, I will still be found tuning in and chatting in the chat room as always ;)

Thanks,

-XS
