

No XSIVE THERAPY tomorrow - I'm a momma's boy!!

Posted by XS! - 2011/05/08 22:39

Hello Friends,

Due to circumstances out of my control, there will be no XSIVE THERAPY tomorrow, as I have plans to go out for dinner with my mom during my timeslot. Yes, I know that today is Mother's day, but we like to party HARD in my family - sometimes for several days at a time - so what better time than this?

However, don't be sad, I will return in two weeks with an extra special set for my beloved fans!

Happy mother's day everyone!
