DiGiTroLL

Lisa Barnes aka DiGiTroLL is a fast rising producer from South London, UK. Back in 2005 was known as Lisa C and started the Vinyl Vixens, a female DJ/producer collective which was successful in the London underground scene and on radio stations. Then she became an events manager and an online admin for various events, married and developed her jingles and adverts company, The Advert People.

Nowadays she's known as HouseFool (for her House stuff) and DiGiTroLL (for her Breaks stuff), while she runs her own label NEW POLITICS RECORDS. DiGiTroLL is all about revisiting her youth, the early 90s Jungle/Hardcore/Old-Skool Breaks is what she grew up on. She has managed to cause some buzz with her releases for BAD HABIT MUZIK, NEW POLITICS RECORDS and the wicked "YE OLDE SOUND OF LONDON" single for V.I.M.BREAKS BRONZE series! Watch out for the new V.I.M.BREAKS BRONZE single (entitled "WHITE GLOVE") coming out very soon!
